ISTE STUDENT CHAPTER PRESENTS

CHANDIGARH UNIVERSITY
MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2025

13th - 15th October

ABOUT ISTE

The Indian Society for Technical Education (ISTE) is a premier national organization devoted to advancing technical education across India. ISTE fosters professional development, innovation, and ethical standards among students and educators. Through partnerships with institutions like Chandigarh University, ISTE supports co-curricular activities such as MUNs to enhance communication, critical thinking, and leadership qualities among students, equipping them to thrive in complex global environments.

INVITE FOR THE 2.0 EDITION OF CHANDIGARH UNIVERSITY MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2025

It brings us great pleasure to announce that the 2.0 Edition of the Chandigarh University Model United Nations (CU MUN) Conference will be held in September 2025.

The Chandigarh University Model United Nations Conference is one of the most dynamic and engaging Model United Nations Conferences hosted in North India, with its first edition held in 2015.

It has grown rapidly in terms of popularity, prominence, and participation, and we intend to uphold this legacy in our 4.0 edition.

CU MUN seeks to encourage holistic growth and development through intellectual and interpersonal breakthroughs that emphasise meaningful dialogue, critical thinking abilities, and diplomatic resilience.

Note from the SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Delegates, Faculty Advisors, and Esteemed Guests,

It is with immense pride and anticipation that I welcome you to CUMUN'25, a flagship simulation under the banner of Technicia'25, hosted by the Indian Society for Technical Education, Chandigarh University.

In an era where diplomacy is as vital as innovation, this Model United Nations provides a unique platform for students to challenge global narratives, shape policies, and sharpen their voices as future leaders. Our committees have been meticulously designed to ignite debate, foster collaboration, and inspire resolutions that echo with purpose and impact.

As Secretary-General, my vision is to uphold the spirit of constructive dialogue and meaningful engagement, where every delegate feels empowered to speak, negotiate, and transform ideas into action. The Secretariat, Executive Board, and Organising Committee are committed to providing a professional and enriching experience for all.

I invite you to enter these chambers not just as students, but as statespersons, diplomats, and visionaries. May your time at CUMUN'25 be filled with thoughtful debate, unforgettable memories, and friendships that transcend borders.

Warm regards,
Sahil Wadhwa
Secretary-General

COMMITTEES & AGENDAS

CUMUN

UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

AGENDA

Preventing Nuclear Conflict: Diplomatic Pathways to Reduce Tensions in South Asia

The UNGA is the main deliberative body of the United Nations, where all 193 member states have equal representation. It provides a global platform for discussing and addressing pressing international issues such as peace, security, development, and human rights. Delegates in this committee engage in diplomatic negotiations, form alliances, and draft resolutions aimed at fostering international cooperation and multilateral action.

ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET

AGENDA

Comprehensive Evaluation of India's Strategic Responses to Terrorism: Diplomatic, Security, and Economic Dimensions

AIPPM is a dynamic Indian domestic committee that simulates a multi-party political forum. It brings together representatives from various national and regional political parties to debate, discuss, and deliberate on key national issues. s and power dynamics of Indian politics. Delegates are expected to think politically, defend party stances, and build consensus on matters of national interest.

UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

AGENDA

Sustainable Development: Progress and Strategies with Special Focus on SDGs 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, and 13

UNDP is the UN's global development network focused on eradicating poverty, reducing inequalities, and promoting sustainable development. It supports countries in building policies, leadership skills, and institutional capabilities to achieve long-term growth. In this committee, delegates discuss socio-economic challenges, climate action, and global development goals, aiming to create impactful and inclusive solutions.

UNITED NATIONS ENVIRONMENT PROGRAMME

AGENDA

Artificial Climate Modification: Assessing the Environmental, Ethical, and Governance Implications of Geoengineering Technologies

The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) is the leading global authority on environmental issues, guiding nations on sustainable development and environmental conservation. This committee provides a dynamic platform for delegates to deliberate on the complex realm of geoengineering—technologies designed to deliberately manipulate Earth's climate systems.

UNITED NATIONS COMISSION ON STATUS OF THE WOMEN

AGENDA

Addressing Women's Vulnerability to Trafficking: Case Study of Lebanon and Regional Challenges

The United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW) serves as the foremost global body exclusively dedicated to promoting gender equality and empowering women. This committee will explore the multidimensional issue of human trafficking, focusing on the systemic vulnerabilities faced by women in Lebanon and the surrounding region. Delegates will engage in nuanced discussions on the root causes, policy responses, regional cooperation, and the socio-economic factors that exacerbate exploitation and trafficking of women.
